What's New For You In the Sherr Institute

The Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies offers two different educational experiences in the month of November.

On Monday, November 16, the Book Discussion Group will hold the first of four monthly meetings to discuss a Jewish book of current interest.

At this first session, Sawa Hasan's Enemy in the Promised Land will be discussed and should be read in advance. Pat Davidson will lead the discussion.

Books to be read and discussed in the future will be chosen and the discussion leaders selected.

Bring your thoughts and ideas when you come to the Book Discussion Group.

On three Tuesday mornings in November—November 10, 17 and 24—Rabbi Harlan J. Wechsler will present an introduction to the structure, philosophy and meaning of the Sabbath prayers in a course on "The Prayerbook." Co-sponsored by the Sisterhood, this course will meet from 10:30-11:45 a.m.

Consult your Sherr Institute brochure for the full roster of courses and events offered throughout the year and plan to make this year your year to study in the Sherr Institute.

The Leo Baeck Memorial Lecture is an annual event to which prominent speakers are invited to share their knowledge on a broad range of topics.

Simhat Torah and Samuel Pepys

I hope that those who attended the Simhat Torah Services enjoyed the frivolity on that day. I had often wondered what a gentile would think of us if he or she came into the Synagogue for the first time during these celebrations. Amazingly enough, this very occurrence happened to the famous diarist Samuel Pepys (1633-1703) and the unfortunate results are recorded for posterity in his diary.

Pepys' diary covers the years 1660-1670 and is an interesting history of the restoration of the monarchy in England, after Cromwell. The only Jews in England at this time were Sephardic and Pepys visited the Spanish and Portuguese Synagogue. He, of course, was not aware that it was Simhat Torah and not an ordinary service. Here is an excerpt dated October 13, 1663:

"After dinner my wife and I, by Mr. Rawlinson's conduct, to the Jewish Synagogue: where the men and boys in their vayles, and the women behind a lettice out of sight; and some things stand up, which I believe is their law, in a press to which all coming in do bow; and at the putting on their vayles do say something, to which others that hear the Priest do cry Amen. and the party do kiss his vayle. Their service all in a singing way, and in Hebrew. And anon their Laws that they take out of the press are carried by several men, four or five several burthens in all, and they do relieve one another; and whether it is that every one desires to have the carrying of it, thus they carried it round about the room while such a service is singing. And in the end they had a prayer for the King, in which they pronounced his name in Portugal; but the prayer, like the rest, in Hebrew. But, Lord! to see the disorder, laughing, sporting, and no attention, but confusion in all their service, more like brutes than people knowing the true God, would make a man forswear ever seeing them more; and indeed I never did see so much, or could have imagined there had been any religion in the whole world so absurdly performed as this."

Maybe we should find a more appropriate time to invite our gentile friends.
